

Jeannine, I Dream of Lilac Time

10/09

Words by Gilbert L. Wolfe

Music by N. Shilkret
Arranged by Earl Moon
edt. Phil Ordaz

Verse

Tenor Lead

8

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 *

Li-lacs in bloom, rar-est per-fume, tells me that wait-ing is end-ed. —

Bari Bass

8

9 10 11 12 13 14

— Spring time is here, soon you'll be near, when all our heart-aches are

15 16 17 18 19 20 21

mend-ed. — Close in my arms fond em-bra-ces, once more in

22 23 24 25 26 27 28

hap-pi-est pla-ces; Jean-nine, I Dream of Li-lac Time. — Your

29 30 31 32 33 34 *

eyes, they beam in Li-lac time. Your win-ning smile that 35 36 37 38 39

blush-es like the rose. Yet all the while you sigh, when no-bod-y

40 41 42 43 44 45 46

knows. Jean-nine, my queen of Li-lac time, When I re-turn I'll

(no-one knows.) (Li-lac time,)

47 48 49 50 51 52

make you mine. For you and I, our love will nev-er die. Jean-

(mine, all mine)

(Li-lac time _____ )

nine, I dream of Li-lac time. steal your charms in

(Li-lac time _____ )

(Bass melody)

(Li - lac time.) To steal your charms in Li-lac time, here in my arms, (at) Li-lac time. For you and

Li - lac time, _____

I, our love dreams can ne-ver die! Jean - nine, I dream of

rit. a tempo

Jean-nine I dream

Li-lac time. I dream of my Jean - nine.

(Li-lac time)