

Robert Jones: The Second Booke of Songs and Ayres (1601)

4. Dreames and Imaginations

Dreames and Im - ag - in - at - ions are all the re - cre - at - ions ab - sence can gain me, Dreames are but cow - ard and doe, much good they dare not stand too, a - sham'd of the mor - row, Dreames with their false pre - ten - ces, and thoughts con - founds my sen - ses, in the con - clu - sion,

Dreames and im - ag - in - at - ions are all the re - cre - at - ions ab - sence can gaine me, Dreames are but cow - ard and doe, much good they dare not stand too, a - sham'd of the mor - row, Dreames with their false pre - ten - ces, and thoughts con - founds my sen - ses, in the con - clu - sion, dreames when I wake, dreames when I wake con - found me, thoughts thoughts like a child, thoughts like a child that wink - eth, hee's which like a glasse, which like a glasse did shew mee what

dreames when I wake, dreames when I wake con - found me, thoughts
thoughts like a child, thoughts like a child that wink - eth, hee's which like a glasse, which like a glasse did shew mee what for her sake doth wound me least she dis-daine me, then sink-ing let me lie, not be-guild that think-eth hath peir'st me tho-row, both fill-ing me with blisses, came to passe and threw mee in-to con-fu-sion, she made me leave all other, for her sake doth wound me least she dis-daine me, then sink-ing let me not be-guild that think-eth hath peir'st me tho-row, fill-ing me with bliss-came to passe and threw mee in-to con-fu-sion, she made me leave all or think-ing let me die, since love, since love, since love hath slaine both kill-ing me with kisses, dy-ing, dy-ing, dy-ing in soryet had she got an-other, this was, this was, this was a-bu-lie, let me die, since love, since love, since love, since love hath slaine -es, with kiss-es, dy-ing, dy-ing, dy-ing, dy-ing in sor-other, an-o-ther, this was, this was, this was, this was a-bu-

10

13

me, then sink - ing let me lie, or think - ing let mee die,
 -row, both fill - ing me with blisses, both kill - ing me with kisses,
 -sion, she made me leave all other, yet had she got an - other, me, slaine me, then sink - ing let me lie, let mee die,

 -row, sor - row, both fill - ing me with blisses, with kiss - es,
 -sion, she made, she made me leave all other, an - o - ther,

16

since love, since love, since love hath slaine me.
 dy - ing, dy - ing, dy - ing, in sor - row.
 this was, this was, this was a - bu - sion.

since love, since love, since love, since love hath slaine me.
 dy - ing, dy - ing, dy - ing, in sor - row.
 this was, this was, this was a - bu - sion.