

My Lord, What a Morning

Trad. Spiritual

U. Baake, 2002

Slow and legato

what a mor - ning

Sopran I/II
My Lord, what a mor - ning, my Lord, what a mor - ning,

Alto
My Lord, what a mor - ning, my Lord, what a mor - ning,

Tenor
My Lord, what a, what a mor - ning, my Lord, what a mor - ning,

Bass I/II
mor - ning
what a mor - ning,

5

when the stars

1. fall | 2. più agitato

my Lord, what a mor - ning, when the stars be - gin to fall. O fall. You will - my Lord, what a mor - ning, when the stars be - gin to fall. fall. You will - my Lord, what a mor - ning, when the stars be - gin to fall. O fall. You'll

You will -

10

hear the trum - pet sound, wake the na - tions un - der - ground,

hear the trum - pet sound, wake the na - tions un - der - ground,

hear the trum - pet sound, to wake the na - tions un - der - ground,

hear wake the

14

look - ing to my god's right hand, when the stars be - gin to fall. O — fall.

look - ing to my god's right hand, when the stars be - gin to fall. O — fall.

8
look - ing to my god's right hand, when the stars be - gin to fall. O — fall.

2. You'll hear the sinners cry,
to wake the nations underground,
looking to my god's right hand,
when the stars begin to fall.
--Ref.--

3. You'll hear the Christians shout,
to wake the nations underground,
looking to my god's right hand,
when the stars begin to fall.
--Ref.--