Have-n't you seen? The ru- ins of our world.

The first system of the musical score consists of a vocal line and a piano accompaniment. The vocal line is written in treble clef and contains the lyrics 'Have-n't you seen? The ru- ins of our world.' The piano accompaniment is written in grand staff (treble and bass clefs) and features a steady eighth-note bass line and a more complex treble line with chords and melodic fragments. Chord symbols F, C, G/B, G/A, and Am are placed above the vocal line. A first ending bracket is shown above the C, G/B, and G/A chords.

C G/B Am

the ru - ins of our world.

The second system of the musical score continues the vocal line and piano accompaniment. The vocal line is written in treble clef and contains the lyrics 'the ru - ins of our world.' The piano accompaniment is written in grand staff. Chord symbols C, G/B, and Am are placed above the vocal line. A second ending bracket is shown above the C, G/B, and Am chords, with a 'rit.' (ritardando) marking above it.

2. When she embraces your heart turns to stone
She comes at night when you're all alone
And when she whispers your blood shall run cold
You better hide before she finds you
3. She covers the earth with a breathtaking cloak
The sun awakes and melts it away
The world now opens its eyes and sees
The dawning of a new day
