Lyrics:

Once I made a man all out of snow
 He had the darkest eyes and a button nose
 I told him all my sadness and my fear
 And he just listened with a snowy ear

But when I came around the next day
 My friend had gone and melted all away
 I saw his eyes lying on the ground
 And I made a sound that was something like crying.

Oh, one day you will go away from this
 Oh, one day you will know, we're men of snow
 We melt one day.

Winters come, my love, the winters go
 And time stacks up in piles like winter snow
 And everything you love and hold so dear
 It won't really matter, when we disappear

Oh, one day you will go away from this
 Oh, one day you will know, we're men of snow
 We melt one day.

Oh, one day you will go away from this
 Oh, one day you will know, we're men of snow
 We melt one day.

You know, we're men of snow
 We melt one day.
