1. Well, I made up my mind, —
2. Last night,

not going to let you get — a - way. Yeah, to well, I thought you might — have stayed. If I'd have think that I'm — the luck - y guy, — well, I've had the guts — I would have pushed my luck, — but then you al - most got ___ it made.

might have turned ___ a - way.

'Cause it's been so long ___ since I've felt ___
How do I ex - plain? ___ I know it (3rd time instrumental)

___ this strong ___ a - bout an - y - one ___ at all. ___ sounds in - sane, ___ but I've been through this ___ be - fore. ___

I get In just a

so ex - cit - ed, I ain't going to fight ___ it, I mat - ter of time, ___ you could change your mind; ___ you could

To Coda

think I might be fall - ing in love. So, turn and walk right through the door. So, (end instrumental) So,

Chorus:

come on, let's get it right. } Oh 'cause you're the come on, let's get it straight. } on - ly one. } Come on, we ain't got all night, } Come on, I just can't wait, }

D.C.

yeah, 'cause you're the on - ly one now.

2.  D.S. al Coda  3. Repeat ad lib. and fade

on - ly one — now. on - ly one. — So,

Coda

come on, let's get it right, oh — we ain't got all night. — So come on, ba - by, let's get it straight, yeah, — I just can't wait. Now —
